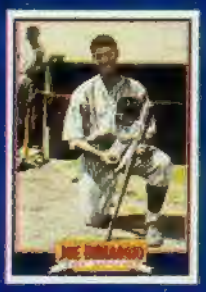
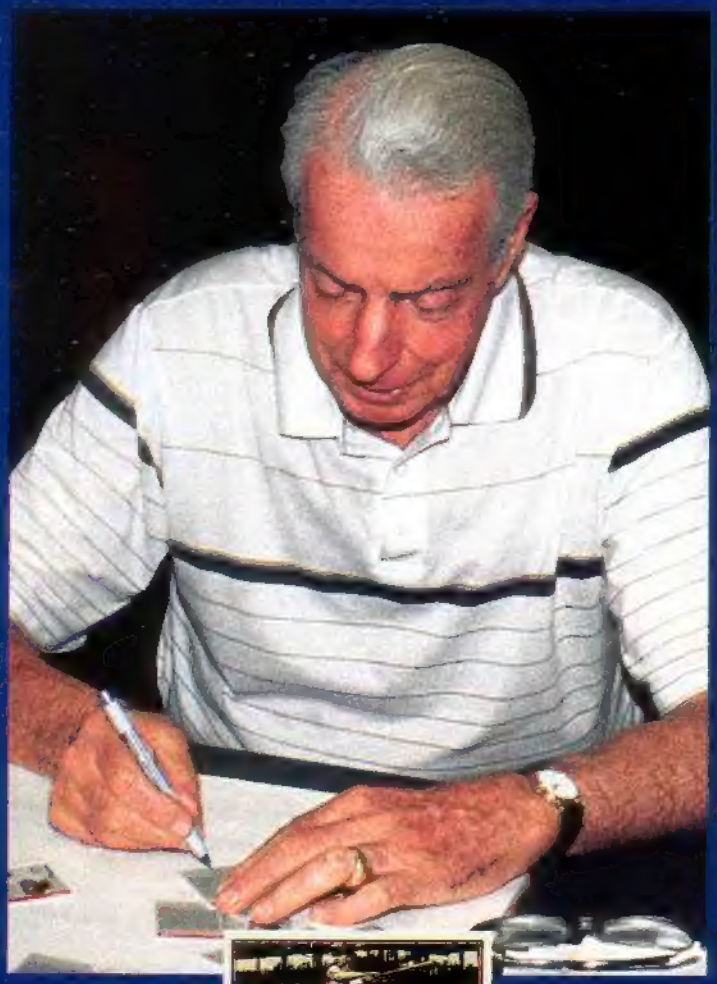
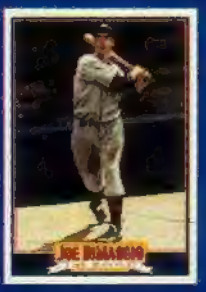
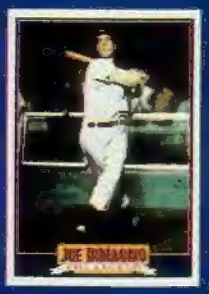
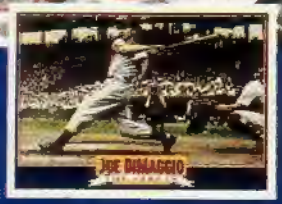
AMERICA'S LIVING LEGEND











Personally autographed Joe DiMaggio cards

This spectacular five-card limited edition captures the historic highlights of the Yankee Clipper's legendary career. Its release during the 50th anniversary of Joe's unparalleled 56-game hitting streak in 1941 ensures that each card will be an invaluable collectible. There are 2,500 personally autographed cards. There are also 150,000 unsigned cards. You'll find them randomly inserted in SCORE's 1992 Baseball Series I, which includes 442 regular cards. The cards will feature the exciting action photography and informative text that you've come to expect from SCORE. While only some Series I packs will have a DiMaggio card, every pack will have one trivia and 16 regular cards. They'll be available in your area in late 1991. Watch for our newly designed wrappers. In card collecting, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

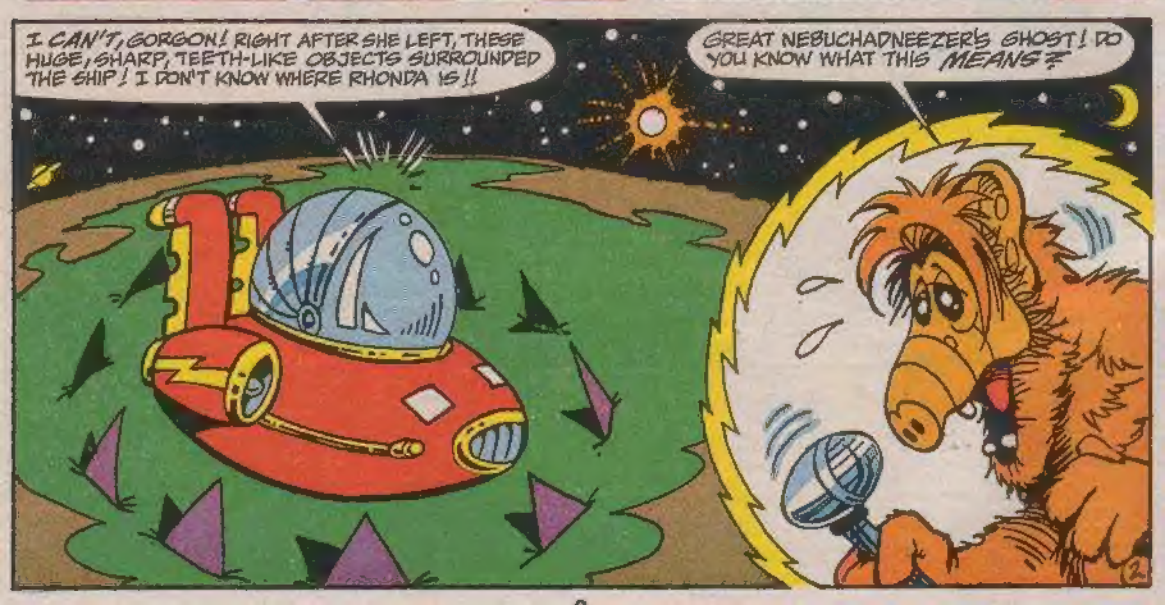
BEEP!
HI... IT'S GORDON... I WAS WONDERING IF YOU'D LIKE TO GET MARRIED?

THAT'S A TEMPTING OFFER, GORDO... BUT I THOUGHT YOU LIKED RHONDA!
HA! I KILL YOU!
SKIP! IS THAT YOU?

YEAH... SORRY I DIDN'T ANSWER RIGHT AWAY... I WAS IN THE MATHROOM COUNTING MY BOUILLABASEBALL CARDS!
NO PROBLEM, SKIP-TO-MY-LOU... CAN YOU PUT RONNIE ON THE LINE FOR ME, PAL?
Uhh... NOT REALLY... Y'SEE, SHE STEPPED OUTSIDE TO CHECK THIS PLANET WE LANDED ON...
WELL, COULD YOU GO GET HER, PLEASE? THIS IS KIND OF IMPORTANT!



I CAN'T, GORDON! RIGHT AFTER SHE LEFT, THESE HUGE, SHARP, TEETH-LIKE OBJECTS SURROUNDED THE SHIP! I DON'T KNOW WHERE RHONDA IS!!

STAN'S SOAPBOX

Hi! Heroes,

There I was reading some old Soapboxes the other day (Hey, somebody's gotta do it) and I came across a column from 1980 that I thought might be appropriate in this, the holiday season of brotherly love. So, without further (or even lesser) ado, here goes:

Everyone yaps about young people being "different" nowadays. Forget it! Human nature doesn't change. What's happening is, the world has been wildly changing, producing new sets of rules each time you blink your eye. It's the social climate, the environment that's been changing, not you 'n me, Bunky!

Here's a f'nnstance: Say you've got two homes—a lonely cabin in the country and a small city apartment. You play your stereo full blast in your cabin, but who cares? There's no one around to hear it, so you're not disturbing anyone. But play it just as loud in your small apartment with the paper-thin walls and your neighbors wanna clobber you. You haven't changed. You're the same yo-yo in both places. But the conditions are different.

Fact is, young people are the same as ever; the same noisy, scrounge, mangy, wonderful crazies they've always been—and adults are still the same grouchy, grunchy, goopy, hard-pressed and harassed heroes they've always been—and which you'll soon become. Nothing changes but the labels. Which leads us to the main point I wanna make.

None of us is all that different from each other. We all want essentially the same things out of life — a measure of security, some fun, some romance, friendship and the respect of our contemporaries. That goes for everyone, Italians, Russians, Arabs, Asians, Catholics, Protestants, Jews, Blacks, Browns, Whites and green-skinned Hulks. So why don't we all get with it and stop putting the "other" guys down? Just look in the mirror, mister — that other guy is you! Seasons Greetings!

Excelsior!

Stan Lee

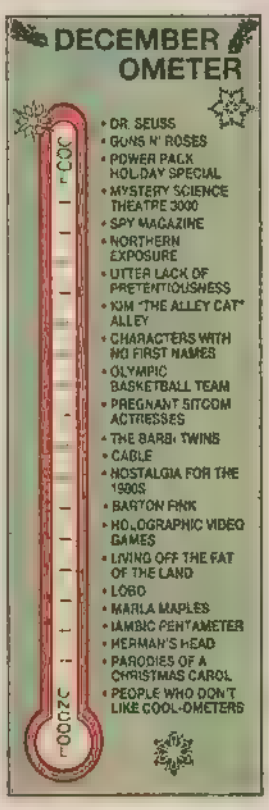
Well, it's that time of year again: you know, jingle bells and mistletoe and ho-ho-ho. It's the season for giving. (Last month we had thanksgiving. This month we have giving. Shouldn't that be the other way around?)

Our uptown friends were apparently very much in the spirit of giving this year—they gave us two of their employees—kind of. As we looked under the Marvel editorial tree this year, we were thrilled to find, wrapped in decorative packages with shiny red ribbons, former DC people "Jolly" Joey Cavalieri and "Merry" Mindy Newell. (It's not the Hot Wheels Race Track we had asked for, but there's always next year.) Joey and Mindy have joined us as an editor and an assistant editor, respectively and we're as happy as eight maids a' milking to have them aboard. Joey is now editor of MOON KNIGHT as well as the new ultra-top secret 2093 line. Mindy will be assisting Bob Budiansky over in Special Projects. Welcome aboard, Joey and Mindy! Now stop tacking up the mistletoe all over the joint and get to work.

All seriousness aside, we do have a lot of decorating to do here around the Marvel offices. We've even gone so far as to rearrange the ornaments at the top of the Marvel editorial tree this year, what with some recent promotions. Mark "Melch-or" Gruenwald, Carl "Caspar" Potts and Bob "Balthazar" Budiansky (or, the three Wise Men of Marvel, as they're collectively known), are now all Executive Editors (with Mark being Senior Executive Editor, of course!), each of whom has his own stable of editors to oversee. Tom "Scrooge" DeFalco is still our inestimable Editor in Chief, meaning he gets to put the cigar on the top of the tree. (We know, it's supposed to be a star, but Tom is the boss!)

Of course, once you have your own tree, you'll need gifts to put beneath it. As you're waiting in endless lines in department stores this year, or futilely searching for a parking space, you may be pondering gift ideas. What can you stuff in your stocking this year? Well, we can't buy your presents for you, but we can point out that this year, for the first time ever, it is now possible to own stock in Marvel. It's true, the Marvel Entertainment Group has gone public, and now it's possible to become a shareholder. Just think of the punniness were one to put stock in a stocking! Even the Grinch could appreciate that.

© 1991 Sergio Aragonés



Okay, so maybe stock is not exactly your cup of eggnog. Perhaps you'd like something a little more fun. Then we can't think of anything better than a membership in WAM!, the official Marvel fan club. WAM! stands for Wild Agents of Marvel, and is not in any way affiliated with pop singer George Michael. The club membership includes a wreath-full of goodies, as well as a quarterly newsletter. It's even better than a Perry Como holiday special!

So, now, as you sit around the open fire (wishing you had a fireplace), sipping hot cocoa in the dark, praying the carolers outside won't know you're home, you may wish to relax with a good magazine. How about that copy of Entertainment Weekly, with the colorful write-up on X-MEN #1, chock full o' photos of Jim "Rudolph" Lee, John "Frosty" Byrne, and Chris "Santa" Claremont. And then there's that chestnut-roasting write-up Todd "Tiny Tim" McFarlane received in People Magazine for his work on the SPIDER-MAN book. It occurs to us that the media have blessed the comics biz of late with the gift of coverage.

With this being the season of giving, we got to thinking what we, the Marvel Entertainment Group, could do for you, our loyal fans. Then it occurred to us: we could increase the entertainment value of all our comics by an inflationary 100%! That's a deal that's sure to make your sleighbell's ring-a-ling. Unfortunately, we've also had to raise the prices of our standard newsstand comics to $1.25. What's that, you say—only a 25% price increase with a 100% increase in quality? How can they do it, you ask? It's easy. We've all taken an oath to care even more than we usually do. If you still don't know what to make of the situation, think of it as getting a visit from the Ghost of Price Increases Past.

Brrr! The snow does seem to be piling up outside, and it seems to be getting a little deep in here, too. So it's time once again for us to cook up a batch of cut-out cookies, snuggle up with our loved ones, and listen to dogs barking out our favorite Yuletide carols. What more could any merry Marveloid ask for? Peace, people!

c/o STAR COMICS, 387 PARK AVE. SOUTH, NYC, NY 10016

Hey, kids—Since we print your name, city, and state, please include them on your letters.

Dear Editor,
Tell ALF he's great! I love him. I want to marry him. Will he marry me?

Tammy Smith
Longmont, CO

Good question, Tammy. ALF has a question of his own before he can answer yours. If ALF is contributing several stomachs to this marriage, can you contribute a restaurant or a grocery store, at the very least?

Dear Gordo, or should I say ALF,
I have just started reading your comics, and I love them. In fact, I'm getting a subscription so I won't miss a single issue!
I think I'm your #1 fan. I'm 19 years old and I have started to collect anything and everything pertaining to ALF. I am hoping that maybe some of your fans might have videotapes of the ALF Tales cartoon show. Perhaps they could write to me about my obtaining a copy of them. I would also like an ALF pen pal. Please print my whole address.

Stephen Gendron

Unit E207
Taunton, MA 02780

You asked for it — you got it, Stephen! And ALF got your great portrait. Thanks.

Dear ALFmeister,
I really liked your Doctor Who parody (flashback). I am interested in Doctor Who-zonfirst's regurgitations. I think it's the best ALF story ever.
I have every comic except for #35. I am still trying to get it. Well, I have to go now. Hugs and snorbs, ALFmeister!

Thomas Amici
Phoenixville, PA

Thanks for the hugs and snorbs, Thomas. We're keeping! the snorbs in the freezer. They're especially nice when they're cold.

Dear Sir/Madame,
My name is Nicholas Bragg and I admire your comics, especially ALF. I would like to know what you like to draw. I would also like to know how you got the idea of ALF.

Nicholas
Aberdeen, MD

Interesting question, Nicholas. ALF was created by Paul Fusco of Alien Productions, the company that produced the TV show, ALF. We don't know where Mr. Fusco got the idea for ALF. But ideas can come from lots of sources — movies, books, conversations, your own imagination, or from seeing the world a little differently.

Dear ALF,
I like your comics. My favorite so far is #36. I love your sitcom. I started collecting your comics in October 1990. I would appreciate it a lot if you could send me #1-33.
Oh, and I love your jokes. See you later.

Evan Billingsley
Fayetteville, AR

We'd be happy to send you #1-33 except for one thing — we don't have any in the office. As we've mentioned before, ALF finds his own comics especially delicious. URP!
But mail order companies that specialize in selling back issues of comics often advertise in regular MARVEL comics. You might find them there.

Dear ALF,
I have some ALF jokes:
Name ALF's most disappointing vacation. When he went to Bologna, Italy; Frankfurt, Germany; Hamburg, Germany; and New Delhi, India.
What was ALF's biggest disappointment when he visited the Sequoia National Forest? No giant apples on the giant redwood trees.
Do you know how Arnold Melmaschwarzenegger got to be so muscular? When ALF was a baby, Arnold carried all his meals to him.
Here's a story idea: Willie takes ALF hunting but they get separated. ALF is going down the trail with a BB gun when he hears a noise from a bush. He points the gun at the bush. Bigfoot, who has never seen a human, comes out with his hands up in surrender.
Bigfoot says, "Okay, Mr. Human, go ahead. You can capture me. You can take me to civilization. I just want you to know I have 17 kids at home."
ALF feels sorry for Bigfoot so he points the BB gun to the ground. ALF says, "I'm not going to capture you. You can go ahead and go home."
Bigfoot says, "To 17 kids? What kind of a monster are you?!"
I hope you like it. You can use them in your comics. If not, I hope they inspire you to keep up the outstanding work.

Ralph Garcia
Bosque Farms, NM

Inspiration is key, Ralph. Thanks for sending some.

Yo ALF,
If you eat lots of cats, you should have a lot of catsup! (I kill me!)
I have a little 'problem.' I live in a little town and all the ALF comics are in L.A. That's 50 miles away from my house! I DO NOT like E.T. I hide it in a movie box! Ha! Ha!

Brian Rude
San Luis, CA

Yo Brian! Take a look at Evan's letter above!

Dear ALF,
I'm your number 1 fan. I'd like to have ALF over for dinner someday. What's his favorite food?

Jamie Cunningham
Philadelphia, PA

Glad you asked, Jamie. ALF's favorite food depends on the season. This time of year it's furball sandwiches — he's shedding, you know.

It's All NEW!

GAME BOY AT WORK

GET YOUR MIND BACK IN THE GUTTER.

Time to get crude and rude, dude. 'Cause Shredder's nabbed April O'Neil again in Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles® II Back from the Sewers,™ Konami's® new bodacious shell bound shell shocker for Game Boy.®

- Two megs memory puts major screenage in your face with bigger characters and cooler action.
- 6 totally tasty levels plus 5 bonus pizza collecting stages.
- Attempt to release captured Turtles in the most excellent rescue levels.
- All new feature lets you choose a level of difficulty.
- Walk, talk, jump, climb, skateboard and surf through downtown sewers, abandoned buildings, subways, highways, the Technodrome and other areas o' pain.
- Righteous reporter April is missing serious air time, dude. So get slicing and maybe Shredder will choke 'n croak for good. Not!
